THE NEW LIFE VERSION

The New Life Version of the Bible had its beginnings in the 1960s when missionaries to the Canadian Arctic, Gleason and Kathryn Ledyard, saw the need for an English Bible that was accurate and easy to read. In 1969 the New Life Version of the New Testament was completed, with a 850-word vocabulary.

The Ledyards developed a unique phraseology which took difficult biblical words and broke them down into simple meaningful easy-to-read phrases. This gives the New Life Version the quality of a built-in dictionary. Sentences and paragraphs are kept short, with headings summarizing their content. All pronouns referring to God are capitalized. Even children in the earlier grades can read this English version of the Bible with understanding. And many adults find themselves startled into new insights by the blunt simplicity of the language. In 1986 the Old Testament was completed with only a few new words, unique to the Old Testament, added to the basic 850-word vocabulary.

The New Life Version is available in the following editions:

FICTION FOR CHILDREN AND TEENS

EAGLE FEATHER SERIES

Readers will be captivated by the intrigue of the mysteries ... and lives changed in the process. The Eagle Feather novels are for pre-teens, teens, and older, exploring questions of tradition and faith – real life issues for Native North American youth. Produced by NCMD. Written by Bernard Palmer and Karen Peters.

The Eagle Feather Mystery

0920731961 – $5.95

(Book 1) Could it really be that Grandfather is guilty of poaching? And will he be able to convince the youth to learn about and follow the traditional ways? Or will Twila sway her cousins to also accept the “white man’s religion”?

The Great Dog Sled Race

1896968015 – $5.95

(Book 3) Wanting to race sled dogs becomes a challenge in honesty and integrity. Meanwhile, family life takes a turn when the youth’s father returns home after a lengthy hospital stay. What will come of the conflict between their parents? And can Louis quit his solvent-sniffing habit after his friend freezes to death?

The Mysterious Break-in

0920731988 – $5.95

(Book 2) Big Lake Reserve becomes shrouded in mystery when the Band Office is broken into. Why do vandals choose Grandfather’s house next? Even these events, though, cannot prepare the community for the tragedy that strikes when drug dealers attempt to run from the law.

The Case of the Strange Pottery

1896968066 – $5.95

(Book 4) During a visit with relatives on the Navajo Reservation in New Mexico, the Yazzie youth learn about their father’s heritage. What could be so tragic that it would cause cousin Zena to commit suicide? Will Grant be able to return to Canada with the Yazzies, or did he indict himself by taking Basil Hunter’s job offer?

The Case of the Innocent Maggie

1896968074 – $5.95

(Book 5) Who are the creeps who caught Tawana on her way through the bush to visit Mrs. Broucher? What would they have done if Robert and Louis hadn't shown up in time? Rita Yazzie makes more false promises to her family – will she ever stay home as a faithful mother? And Louis gets in trouble when he tries to please the spin-headed Mrs. McDonald in her search for flowers.

The Case of the Missing Child

1896968309 – $5.95

(Book 7) How could Robert Yazzie be drunk? Hadn't he just recently been giving all the right answers and praying at Bible club? Was what some said true? ... that he was only on a "religious kick" and would soon be back to his old self? Is so, then what are the odds that a changed life would last for any of the youth?

The Case of the Soapstone Carving

1896968317 – $5.95

(Book 6) Through a unique job offer, the Yazzies arrive in Nunavut for a four-month stay. They quickly become friends with Benji and Annie Kusugak who have recently moved into town from "the land." What will the discovery of a little half-brother mean to Benji and Annie's relationship with their father? Does this explain their mother's desperation before she died? And how does a missing soapstone carving fit into the mystery?

The Nature of Things at Angel Lake

1896968511 – $5.95

(Book 8) Fourteen year-old Tawana Yazzie is glad her friend, Tanya, has come with her to camp. But will Tanya's attitude – the result of a troubled life – ruin their week? Meanwhile, Robert Yazzie must discover the reason for his friend's disappearance from camp in the middle of the night before tragedy strikes. A fight over logging rights, the environment, personal desires and personal defeats ... and hope for the future.
