Who We Are

Tribal Trails Books & Resources is a department of Northern Canada Evangelical Mission (NCEM) and exists to further the Gospel of Jesus Christ among Canada's First Peoples. This catalogue is published to help provide Christian materials for Native people, as well as related ministry tools.

Unless otherwise noted, material is in the English language. Materials in several Native languages are listed in the Native Language Resource section – including Bibles, books, videos, music/speaking recordings, and language-learning aids.

We are continually adding new products – please call or write us for a catalogue update, or check our website (see address on page 5).

Bibles

The New Life Version

The New Life Version of the Bible had its beginnings in the 1960s when missionaries to the Canadian Arctic, Gleason and Kathryn Ledyard, saw the need for an English Bible that was accurate and easy to read. In 1969 the New Life Version of the New Testament was completed, with a 850-word vocabulary.

The Ledyards developed a unique phraseology which took difficult biblical words and broke them down into simple meaningful easy-to-read phrases. This gives the New Life Version the quality of a built-in dictionary. Sentences and paragraphs are kept short, with headings summarizing their content. All pronouns referring to God are capitalized. Even children in the earlier grades can read this English version of the Bible with understanding. And many adults find themselves startled into new insights by the blunt simplicity of the language. In 1986 the Old Testament was completed with only a few new words, unique to the Old Testament, added to the basic 850-word vocabulary.

The New Life Version is available in the following editions:

Books by Bill Jackson

The Early Church Era and Healing

9781896968865 $3.50

“The doctrine of healing and the practice of it have always been a bit of a challenge to many believers,” writes Bill Jackson. “There are many who seek for healing, but not always in the way Scripture tells us to.”

In this booklet Bill points out the importance of sticking to the Word of God, as he clarifies a subject that is often misunderstood.

Bill includes the story of God's hand in his own physical healing, but reminds us that our physical health is just part of something much more important.

We Sailed to America Before Columbus

9781896968711 $3.50

Theories abound as to how the Indigenous Peoples came to be in North and South America. Interestingly, it's not a question at all for many North American Indigenous people who think, “We've always been here.” But is that true? And what about the question: “Are we all part of Adam's race?”

“The Scriptures do give us some answers concerning these very important matters,” says Cree author, Bill Jackson. “I believe the First Nations people need to see that God has included us in His plan, as well as the other nations of the world.”

Firm Foundations for Families

9781896968421 $7.02

Issues facing First Nations families are dealt with using Scripture to show God's plan for the family.

Scripture and Traditional Religion

9781896968589 $3.50

Native pastor, Bill Jackson (Cree), alerts readers to the dangerous deception now being taught under the guise of culture.

A More Sure Word

9780920731581 $3.50

Addresses the topics of: premonitions, visions, dreams, being "slain in the Spirit," voices ... and how we must rely on God's written Word.

Suicide and Then . . .

1896968112 $3.50

Suicide – a sobering reality in many Native communities. The reader is directed to hope for living.

Baptism & Communion

9781896968570 $3.50

Two practices greatly misunderstood and misused. Native pastor Bill Jackson takes us back to the Bible to discover Jesus' original intent.

God and the First Nations

9780920731932 $3.50

Language, culture, religion, racial prejudice – some of the topics discussed ... and God's plan for First Nations.

Look for As Long As The Rivers Run by Bill Jackson in the Life Story Books section.

From Dog Team to Wings

RON KNIGHTLY
9781896968735 $6.00

Join veteran missionary Ron Knightly as he recounts his life from childhood in rural Maine, to boarding school, to the Navy – where the Lord got a hold of him – to Bible school, and then to the mission field, where he and his wife, Marjorie, served among northern First Nations on the Mackenzie River, one of the world's longest waterways.

Owen – The Biography of Owen Salway

FLORENCE SALWAY / GWEN BAILEY
9781896968759 $6.25

Many people knew of Owen C. Salway through his books and magazine and newspaper articles. For many years he effectively served in a national ministry to Canada's First Peoples.

What a lot of his readers didn't know is that Owen suffered his entire adult life with progressive muscular dystrophy. A story of trusting God one day at a time, of experiencing His saturating power when all human strength is gone.

A Southern Belle Goes North

VIRGIE MUELLER
97809938923 $16.67

In 1962 Virgie Mueller left the comfort of her home in Oklahoma, and boarded a train to join her husband Russell over 2,000 miles to the north. This would be the beginning of a 52 year adventure as she and Russell, lived, ministered, and raised their children in a number of First Nations' communities across Canada.

Virgie tells her inspiring story, of how through the tears and the joy, God directed their steps, and was always faithful.

Books for Children & Youth

Eagle Feather Series

Readers will be captivated by the intrigue of the mysteries ... and lives changed in the process. The Eagle Feather novels are for pre-teens, teens, and older, exploring questions of tradition and faith – real life issues for Native North American youth. Produced by TT Books. Written by Bernard Palmer and Karen Peters.

The Eagle Feather Mystery

BERNARD PALMER

0920731961 $5.95

(BOOK 1) Could it really be that Grandfather is guilty of poaching? And will he be able to convince the youth to learn about and follow the traditional ways? Or will Twila sway her cousins to also accept the “white man’s religion”?

The Mysterious Break-in

BERNARD PALMER

0920731988 $5.95

(BOOK 2) Big Lake Reserve becomes shrouded in mystery when the Band Office is broken into. Why do vandals choose Grandfather's house next? Even these events, though, cannot prepare the community for the tragedy that strikes when drug dealers attempt to run from the law.

The Great Dog Sled Race

BERNARD PALMER

1896968015 $5.95

(BOOK 3) Wanting to race sled dogs becomes a challenge in honesty and integrity. Meanwhile, family life takes a turn when the youth's father returns home after a lengthy hospital stay. What will come of the conflict between their parents? And can Louis quit his solvent-sniffing habit after his friend freezes to death?

The Case of the Innocent Magpie

BERNARD PALMER

1896968074 $5.95

(BOOK 5) Who are the creeps who caught Tawana on her way through the bush to visit Mrs. Broucher? What would they have done if Robert and Louis hadn't shown up in time? Rita Yazzie makes more false promises to her family – will she ever stay home as a faithful mother? And Louis gets in trouble when he tries to please the spin-headed Mrs. McDonald in her search for flowers.

The Case of the Strange Pottery

BERNARD PALMER

1896968066 $5.95

(BOOK 4) During a visit with relatives on the Navajo Reservation in New Mexico, the Yazzie youth learn about their father's heritage. What could be so tragic that it would cause cousin Zena to commit suicide? Will Grant be able to return to Canada with the Yazzies, or did he indict himself by taking Basil Hunter's job offer?

The Case of the Soapstone Carving

KAREN PETERS

1896968317 $5.95

(BOOK 6) Through a unique job offer, the Yazzies arrive in Nunavut for a four-month stay. They quickly become friends with Benji and Annie Kusugak who have recently moved into town from "the land." What will the discovery of a little half-brother mean to Benji and Annie's relationship with their father? Does this explain their mother's desperation before she died? And how does a missing soapstone carving fit into the mystery?

The Case of the Missing Child

KAREN PETERS

1896968309 $5.95

(BOOK 7) How could Robert Yazzie be drunk? Hadn't he just recently been giving all the right answers and praying at Bible club? Was what some said true? ... that he was only on a "religious kick" and would soon be back to his old self? Is so, then what are the odds that a changed life would last for any of the youth?

The Nature of Things at Angel Lake

KAREN PETERS

1896968511 $5.95

(BOOK 8) Fourteen year-old Tawana Yazzie is glad her friend, Tanya, has come with her to camp. But will Tanya's attitude – the result of a troubled life – ruin their week? Meanwhile, Robert Yazzie must discover the reason for his friend's disappearance from camp in the middle of the night before tragedy strikes. A fight over logging rights, the environment, personal desires and personal defeats ... and hope for the future.

Let's Talk About... Series

Children can assume responsibility for their own lives if we show them how. This series, written by Joy Berry, helps children become aware of their behaviour; gives them an understanding of why they do the things they do; helps them see why their behaviour may need to be changed; and tells children exactly what they can do to change their behaviour. Each booklet is 32 pages, with full-page color illustrations.

Learning to Fly

(DVD) 3008-01 $18.65

The Path of Biblical Discipleship. A true to life story that illustrates the challenges of a new believer. Russ discovers that the struggles he hoped Christ had freed him from are still there. He is encouraged by his friend to come to a Bible study, where Rev. Craig Smith teaches from the Scriptures about the importance of biblical discipleship. Using a leather craft, he tells the story of an eagle chick and its cycle of life to illustrate that new believers must have nurture and care.

The following teaching videos are by past NCEM General Director, L.W. (Bud) Elford.
